

OLD GLORY WAS TRAILED IN DUST

American Flag Tied to Axle of Vehicle in Which Daniel H. Wells Rode.

REPUTABLE CITIZENS OF ZION WITNESSED OUTRAGE

Refute Statements Made by Apostolic Lawbreaker. Heber J. Grant.

One Heber J. Grant, who in the long ago was christened the "laziest boy in the Thirtieth ward" of Salt Lake City, who was born in 1856, eight days before his father's death, who became an apostle, who ran away from Utah between two days to escape arrest as a polygamist, who took his plural wife with him to Japan when he was sent there as a law defier and law breaker, who was a missionary to bring souls unto the master, who is a blasphemer as he is also a law-breaker, who has boasted of his polygamous living and in an address to young men and women in the University of Utah declared his belief in polygamy, and wished that he could have more wives—questions an affidavit made by the late Martin Harkness of Utah.

Mr. Harkness, who came to Utah in 1881, who was a reputable citizen, who fought the hierarchy of which the blasphemer, Grant, is a member, made affidavit that the American flag was trailed in the dust and trampled upon by the people, trailed under a carriage in which Daniel H. Wells rode in triumph from the penitentiary from which he had been released after incarceration for contempt of the United States court.

Harkness Witnessed Outrage. Martin Harkness, then a resident of Salt Lake City, witnessed this outrage to the flag of his country. Knowing that after he had passed away, his name would be used to deny the historical fact to protect their own treason to the government of the United States, he volunteered an affidavit setting forth the fact of the trailing of the American flag in the dust and trampling upon it by a people to show their contempt for the country against whom they were traitors.

This affidavit of Martin Harkness was printed in The Tribune on Thursday morning. Mr. Harkness was an eye witness to the outrage.

Apostle Orson F. Whitney, in whose alleged history of Utah appears the story of the triumphant return of Daniel H. Wells from the penitentiary, did not mention the fact that the American flag was trailed in the dust. He was and is a historian who wrote as directed by the hierarchy to protect a gang of traitors to their country. It was this alleged history that caused Martin Harkness to make the affidavit which The Tribune printed.

Facts Were Preserved. Martin Harkness knew the gang. He knew the alleged apostles. He knew all the alleged mouthpieces of Almighty God who claim to hold direct communion with the Most High. He knew how insincere they were. He knew they were liars. He knew they would pervert history to conceal their own shame, their own wickedness, their own traitor actions, therefore he wanted to and did preserve an historical fact in Utah which showed how the hierarchy were traitors to their country and their flag.

Martin Harkness knew that the end was near for him; knew that persons like Heber J. Grant would question his statements unless they were fortified; so he had a number of other who had witnessed the trailing of the flag in the dust under the carriage which carried Daniel H. Wells in triumph from the penitentiary make affidavits and those affidavits were turned over to The Tribune.

Stand Up, Apostle Grant. Will the apostle Heber J. Grant say that E. D. Burlingame, a respected citizen of Salt Lake, now living at 261 West Sixth South street, lied when he made affidavit with the late Martin Harkness that the flag was trailed in the dust as Martin Harkness stated? Will this apostolic hypocrite say that J. W. Harvey, a respected citizen of Salt Lake now, lied when he, too, states that the outrage upon the flag as stated by Martin Harkness did occur and that he witnessed it?

Will he question the statement of H. G. McMillan, chairman of the board of public works of Salt Lake City and a most estimable citizen who likewise witnessed the trailing of the flag in the dust as stated by the late Martin Harkness? But why enumerate? The gentlemen named witnessed the outrage. They were here at the time it occurred. They were Gileties. They had no ax to grind. They were not nor now protecting traitors to the country. Can Apostle Grant say as much?

For Damaged Sheep. A jury in District Judge Ritchie's court Friday gave E. E. Freeman a verdict of $2500 against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company for injury to sheep turned away to the apostolic company for delivery to Bancroft, Ida. Freeman said that he turned 2712 ewes over at Lake Side station, Dubuque county, April 17, 1904, and charged the railroad company with delaying the sheep in transit and failing to provide proper care for them. Through these things, Freeman said, 200 head of ewes died, others lost in weight and 600 lambs were prematurely born and died. His damage he placed at $2500.

Wife Charges Desertion. Maggie Russell charges William R. Russell with desertion here July 15, 1909, in a suit filed in the district court. She demands a divorce, $25 costs, $500 a month alimony and $50 attorney fees. Mrs. Russell does not set out when they were married.

GIVEN DIVORCE FROM GOVERNOR'S DAUGHTER

Interlocutory Decree Entered in Favor of Thomas Butler; Other Separations.

Thomas Edward Butler was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Mabel Blanche Cutler Butler, daughter of former Governor John C. Cutler, in District Judge Lewis's court Friday afternoon. The grounds of the divorce were desertion. The decree was entered by default.

The divorce is the sequel to an elopement that brought members of the two families to blows. The members of the Cutler family were bitterly opposed to the match, but the young couple stole a march on them and eloped to Ogden and were married. This was June 9, 1908. A day or so later Mr. Cutler, then governor of the state, went to the Butler home and, after an altercation with young Butler that ended in blows, took his daughter home with him. The next day Butler received this curt note from his bride of a few hours:

"Sir, I will not return to you or live with you."

Governor Cutler took his daughter to California soon afterwards, intending to have her establish a residence there and bring suit for divorce, but the plan was given up.

Jessie M. Ringel told the court that after her husband here to visit her sister, her husband wrote her a curt note from Detroit that she need not bother to return to him, as he didn't wish her back, and she was granted a divorce on the grounds of non-support.

Platte L. Brown said that from the date of their marriage, January 2, 1909, a shiftless husband had not even provided her with clothing, and she was given a divorce and the custody of the child.

Martina A. Solander said that Arthur W. Solander wasted $2000 that she contributed to their marriage and then deserted her, going to Idaho, and she, too, was made a member of the divorce colony. The marriage took place here July 2, 1906. Mrs. Solander has heard nothing from Solander since he left for Idaho.

Other interlocutory decrees were granted as follows:

Christine Brown from Walter M. Brown, desertion.

Lillie Ross from William A. Ross, non-support; custody of the two children and $20 a month alimony.

Caroline W. Jolansen from Andrew Jolansen, non-support; $5 a month alimony.

Leona Pickett from Caleb A. Pickett, non-support; custody of the boy.

Mary Donovan was granted a final decree of divorce from Andrew J. Donovan.

Government Has Jobs.

The United States civil service commission has announced examinations November 23 to secure eligibles in the following government positions: Blue printer in the branch service, at from $2.24 to $2.48 a day; baker in the Genoa Indian schools, at $500 a year and quarters; linotype machinist in the Philippine service, at $2000 a year; telegraph operator (male) in the navy yards at Pensacola, Fla., at $2.50 a day.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has become famous for its cures of coughs, colds, croup and influenza. Try it when in need. It contains no harmful substance and always gives prompt relief. Sold by all dealers.

Ayer's Hair Vigor Youth

In Bankruptcy Court.

The following were adjudicated in bankruptcy in the United States district court Friday: Oliver B. Wilson, engineer, Salt Lake; William Johnston, farmer, Tremonton; J. H. Turner, laborer, Salt Lake; Matthew Dorn, saloonkeeper, Midvale; Paul Smith, cleaner and dyer, Salt Lake; John Butte, machinist, Salt Lake; George N. Nier, salesman, Salt Lake; Hiram Hubbard, engineer, Salt Lake; John H. Williams, fireman, Ogden; Don H. Woolsey, fireman, Ogden.

Prefers Salt Lake to Denver.

B. Roseboom, who recently came here to visit his daughter, living on Dubel avenue, has decided to make Salt Lake City his permanent home, and has gone to Denver for his family. This is worth noting when it is known that Mr. Roseboom has lived in Denver for thirty years and had no thought of changing his residence until after he had been here three weeks. It did not take him long to see that Salt Lake is an ideal place in which to live.

BOYS' WINTER CLOTHES OF KNOWN WORTH

When you buy your boy a suit or overcoat you want the best VALUE you can get for the price you pay, don't you?

The real value of a boy's suit or any other made up garment is largely in the TAILORING.

The cloth may be serviceable and attractive, but poorly tailored, or the tailoring may be good, but the cloth of inferior quality. Either way you find it the garment soon loses its attractive appearance.

It is the combination of reliable woollens properly tailored by hand that gives real values and lasting satisfaction. It is exactly this combination in our boys' clothes that brings every purchaser back.

BOYS' SUITS—Hand-Tailored Sizes 8 to 17—$6.00 to $15.00

By hand tailoring we mean that every vital part—the foundations of fronts, lapels, collar and shoulders—are shaped by hand work—and garments made in this way retain their shape until worn out. All our suits at above prices have it.
